

Activities of GCW Bhagwati Nagar for the month of October 2023

Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, demonstrated its commitment to community service and environmental stewardship by organizing a cleanliness drive at the adopted village of Gole Gujral. The event aimed to promote cleanliness and hygiene within the village and foster a sense of community responsibility. Students, faculty, and staff from GCW Bhagwati Nagar actively participated as volunteers in the cleanliness drive. Their dedication and enthusiasm were instrumental in the success of the initiative. Efforts were made to assess the impact of the cleanliness drive, including improvements in the cleanliness of the village and the level of community engagement. This assessment will inform future initiatives and community development projects.

Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, took a significant step towards promoting environmental sustainability by organizing an awareness program on creating a "Garbage-Free India." The program aimed to educate and motivate individuals to contribute to the vision of a cleaner and healthier nation. Efforts were made to assess the impact of the awareness program, including changes in awareness levels, community engagement, and the adoption of responsible waste management practices. This assessment will guide future initiatives.

Department of Commerce of Govt. College for Women Bhagwati Nagar Jammu organised an awareness tete-a-tete with the labourers under the Swachta Hi Sewa 2023 campaign which revolves around the theme of "Garbage Free India". The programme was organised under the able mentorship of Dr. Meeru Abrol Principal of the college. She emphasised the fact students should be sensitised towards sanitary workers, and they should be given due honour, respect & acceptability by the society as they perform their duties under unhygienic working conditions so that we can live in a clean atmosphere. Under this campaign, students created awareness among labourers regarding the importance of maintaining hygiene and cleanliness in and around the community in general and residence in particular. Ananya Jamwal student of B.A. Sem. 3rd highlighted the significance of garbage management for healthy environment of the society. Isha Rathore student B.Com Sem. 3rd while interacting explained the process of proper disposal of human and domestic waste, she also stressed upon the maintenance of personal hygiene through basic day to day activities. A total of 46 students participated in the campaign with great enthusiasm towards this noble cause. The programme was attended by faculty of the college and was organised by Dr. Preeti Salathia Assistant Professor in Commerce.

On October 19, the Eco Club and NSS Unit of Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, organized a meaningful and traditional event known as "Kalash Yatra." The event aimed to promote environmental awareness and cultural richness while fostering a sense of community spirit. The Kalash Yatra received media coverage through press releases, local news articles, and social media platforms. This coverage helped showcase the college's unique blend of cultural traditions and environmental consciousness.

Early Times Report

JAMMU, Oct 11: The Eco-Club and NSS Unit of Government College for Women, Bhagwati Nagar, came together under the patronage of Dr. Meeru Abrol, Principal of the college, to organize the inspiring "Amrit Kalash Yatra" event, as part of the "Meri Mati Mera Desh" campaign. This event was dedicated to showcasing unity, patriotism, and to express gratitude and pay homage to the martyrs who sacrificed their lives for our beloved nation.

The "Amrit Kalash Yatra" event, a vital component of the "Meri Mati Mera Desh" campaign, was designed to instill a deep sense of pride and love for our motherland. It served as an extraordinary spectacle that displayed the rich cultural heritage of India and reinforced the significance of preserving our national values.

Principal Dr. Meeru Abrol, students, and faculty members actively participated in this noble endeavor by bringing soil and rice from their respective homes. These symbolic materials were then collected in beautifully decorated Amrit Kalash (holy water vessels) to form a procession that traveled around the college campus in a Kalash Yatra.

Dr. Meeru Abrol, the Principal of GCW Bhagwati Nagar, delivered an inspiring message to the students, emphasizing the importance of nurturing patriotism and unity among the youth. She stated, "We firmly believe that occasions like the Kalash Yatra 'Meri Mati Mera Desh' are indispensable for instilling a deep sense of pride and affection for our nation in the hearts of young individuals. India's diverse blend of cultures, languages, and traditions is something to be cherished and safeguarded, and the college is wholeheartedly committed to this endeavor."

This remarkable event was orchestrated by Dr. Meeru

On October 13, the Department of Commerce and NSS Unit of Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, joined hands to celebrate the spirit of Khadi Mahotsav. The event aimed to honour the rich cultural heritage of Khadi and promote sustainable and traditional practices. The collaboration between the Department of Commerce and the NSS Unit ensured a comprehensive and well-organized celebration. The joint efforts added to the success and impact of the Khadi Mahotsav. Efforts were made to assess the impact of the Khadi Mahotsav, including changes in awareness levels, community engagement, and the promotion of sustainable practices. This assessment will guide future initiatives related to indigenous textiles. The Khadi Mahotsav received media coverage through press releases, local news articles, and social media platforms. This coverage helped disseminate information about the celebration and showcased the college's commitment to cultural heritage and sustainability. The Khadi Mahotsav celebration organized by the Department of Commerce and NSS Unit of GCW Bhagwati Nagar on October 13 was a commendable effort to promote the cultural and economic significance of Khadi. It successfully blended tradition with contemporary awareness.

GCW Bhagwati Nagar organises Elocution contest

■ J.L. NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Oct 16: In connection with Khadi Mahotsav celebration, Department of Commerce and NSS unit of GCW Bhagwati Nagar organised a Elocution contest on the theme "Khadi for Nation, Khadi for Fashion" under the patronage of Dr. Meera Ahrol, Principal of the college.

The activity was conducted as a part of series of activities to commemorate Khadi Mahotsav celebration. The objective of the activity was to develop oratory skills among students and to promote Khadi and local products under the banner "Be Local, Be Vocal". During the activity students participated enthusiastically and wholeheartedly by expressing their views on the importance of using and promoting local Khadi products. The judges panel comprised Prof Gaganlyoti and Prof Anjibala. The judges expressed satisfaction at the selection of Prose, Poetry and speeches by students and their delivery. It was the moment of joy and pride for the teachers when their students walked on the stage for their performance. It was followed by the announcement of the results in which Vaishnavi from Sem III was declared as a winner.

While speaking about the glorious history of Khadi, worthy principal of the college, Dr. Meera Ahrol mentioned that from independence to self-reliance, where on one hand Khadi became the pride of the national movement under the leadership of Panditji, today it stands as a pride of Atmanirbhar Bharat. She further appreciated the efforts of the students and gave tips also on improving their communication skills.

GPS Map Camera

Jammu,
PRCF+QR, Jammu, 180002
Lat 32.722541°
Long 74.824872°
13/10/23 01:06 PM GMT +05:30

On October 16, Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, organized an impactful Awareness Seminar focusing on Cleanliness and Hygiene. The seminar aimed to educate participants about the importance of maintaining cleanliness and adopting hygienic practices for overall well-being.

GCW Bhagwati Nagar organizes Awareness Seminar

■ J.L. NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Oct 16: GCW Bhagwati Nagar organized an Awareness Seminar on 16th of October 2023 in the college campus to uphold the values and principles of cleanliness and hygiene across the country under the able guidance of Principal of the college, Dr. Meera Ahrol.

Speaking on the occasion, Principal of the college Dr. Meera Ahrol deliberated on the importance of sanitation. She also lauded the sweepers of the college for the noble job on the occasion. She further added that a clean and green environment is a basic ideology in sustainable development. During the seminar Dr. Meera Raina, Department of Environmental Sciences delivered lecture on the importance of cleanliness, personal hygiene and sanitation. She explained that maintenance of clean surroundings is essential for healthy and active life and ensuring physical and mental wellbeing. She also elaborated on the meniscus single use plastic and its impact on the environment.

Prof. Nisha Bhatnagar, Department of Sociology, made the students aware about the outbreak of malaria and dengue these days and precautions that must be taken to contain the spread of such diseases. She also explained the importance of clean drinking water for disease free life. The students of the college participated whole heartedly in the seminar.

On October 17, 2023, Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, organized a vibrant and creative Poster cum Slogan Writing Competition. The event aimed to tap into the artistic and expressive abilities of the participants while addressing a relevant theme or cause. The competition centred around a theme relevant to current societal or environmental issues.

The theme served as a focal point for the creative expressions of the participants. Students from various disciplines enthusiastically participated in the competition, showcasing their artistic talents and passion for the chosen theme.

GCW Bhagwati Nagar organizes Poster, Slogan writing activity

JL NEWS SERVICE
JAMMU, Oct 17 GCW Bhagwati Nagar organized a Poster-cum-Slogan writing activity on theme "Say No to Single Use Plastic" on 17th of October under the college campus inspired awareness regarding the harmful effects of plastic waste worldwide under the able guidance of Principal of the college, Dr. Meenu Abrol. About 15 students participated whole heartedly in the activity to be part of this social responsibility campaign. All the posters were well designed through perseverance and had the ability to inspire reflection and realization. Speaking on the occasion, Principal of the college, Dr. Meenu Abrol highlighted the several effective initiatives that can be implemented to reduce plastic waste which includes the implementation of ban on single use plastic in the campus and promoting additional responsibility on the students to reduce plastic waste by avoiding single use plastic, buying in bulk, using sustainable food storage, choosing re-usable and eco-friendly plastic waste products. She further added that a clean and green environment is a basic necessity in sustainable development. The campaign was organized under the supervision of Prof. Gagan Ajayi, Head Department of Commerce and also followed by the students of various departments. The objective of the college participated whole heartedly in the session.

GCW Bhagwati Nagar organized a Poster-cum-Slogan writing activity on theme "Say No to Single Use Plastic"

NIN NEWS SERVICE campus to spread whole heartedly in the JAMMU, OCT 17 awareness regarding the activity to be part of this GCW Bhagwati Nagar harmful effects of plastic social responsibility organized a Poster-cum- waste worldwide under the campaign. All the posters Slogan writing activity on able guidance of Principal were well designed theme 'Say No to Single of the college, Dr. thought provoking and had Use Plastic' on 17th of Meenu Abrol. About 15 the ability to inspire October 2023 in the college students participated reflection and realization.

On October 19, Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, organized an intellectually stimulating Essay Writing Competition. The event aimed to provide a platform for students to showcase their writing skills, and critical thinking abilities, and articulate perspectives on a given topic. Participants were required to create both a visually compelling poster and a concise yet impactful slogan related to the chosen theme. The combination of visual and textual elements aimed to convey a powerful message.

Eco-Club of GCW Bhagwati Nagar organised an essay writing competition for India's independence. Dr. Abrol's remarks underscore the event's overarching aim to instill a deep understanding of these aspects among the participants, paving the way for greater appreciation and recognition of India's heritage and its contribution to both economic sustainability and the nation's freedom movement. About 25 students participated in the competition wherein NIN NEWS SERVICE central objective of the Khadi JAMMU, OCT 19 Mahatma, which is to Department at aesthetic and educate Environmental Sciences students and young Prof Gagan Ajayi and Prof and Eco-Club of individuals about the Nisha Shagar were the Government College for importance of Khadi, the adjudicator for the event, Women, Bhagwati Nagar handloom, and locally Pritya Devi of semester 5th organized an essay writing crafted products within the and Anjali Devi of semester competition on the topic: larger framework of our 3rd and 4th semester positions respectively while 'Khadi: Journey from economy and its environmental implications. Furthermore, Freedom to Fashion' to celebrate Khadi Mahatma. The college principal, Dr. she shed light on Khadi's profound historical significance, particularly its pivotal role in the swadeshi movement and the struggle for India's independence. The event was organized by Dr Meenu Abrol, convenor, Eco Club of the college.

Jammu, PRCF+QR, Jammu, 180002
 Lat 32.722453°
 Long 74.825044°
 © 2023 Google

As part of its commitment to fostering cleanliness and hygiene, the Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, organized a series of activities under the Swachhata Mission. The specific initiative aimed to create awareness, engage the community, and contribute to a cleaner and healthier environment. Students, faculty, staff, and members of the local community actively participated in the Swachhata Mission activities. The community-driven approach helped foster a sense of ownership and responsibility.

GCW Bhagwati Nagar organized a Swachhata Campaign

NIN NEWS SERVICE
JAMMU, OCT 19

The Department of Political Science in collaboration with the Department of Physical Education organized a swachhata campaign under the able guidance of the principal of the college, Dr. Meeru Abrol.

The Swachh Bharat mission is a countrywide campaign by the government of India named as the Bharat Abhiyan or the clean India mission that was initiated in 2014 that aims at eliminating open excretion and the management of solid waste is being improved. Its main slogan is one step towards cleanliness. It set a lot of objectives so that India could become cleaner and better. It aims to build sanitary facilities for all household. In a move towards establishing a neat and clean society, a cleanliness drive was organized in the college. More than 50 students participated in this campaign along with the staff members. Delivered a lecture by Dr. Vandana Sharma on the importance of sanitation and cleanliness and other staff members also share their precious views on this topic. This activity was organized to engage students in this cleanliness campaign in the college wherein students collected the waste, raised slogans to make our surroundings garbage free.

Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, took an initiative to showcase a documentary on the Prime Minister's Employment Generation Programme (PMEGP). The event aimed to provide insights into the program's objectives, impact, and the opportunities it creates for aspiring entrepreneurs.

GCW Bhagwati Nagar showcases documentary of PMEGP

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU, Govt. College for women, Bhagwati Nagar showcased a documentary as a part of series of activities being organized under the mentorship of the principal of the college Dr. Meeru Abrol. This programme was organized under the aegis of Prime Minister Employment generation programme and Khadi and village Industries Mission. The documentary was an eye-opener for the spectators as it made the students aware that other than being associated with the freedom movement, Khadi as a cloth is extremely Eco-friendly, a major generator of employment, famous all over the world and safe for sensitive skin. It is ecofriendly as during its preparation for one meter of cloth only four liters of water is consumed vis-a-vis around 53 liters of water while preparing one meter of synthetic cloth.

Speaking on the occasion Principal of the college said, that we as responsible citizens need to use and promote the use of the fabric Khadi as it will create more Employment opportunities as it does not need any Hi-tech machinery or Electricity but requires the humble "Charkha" and hard work and dedication of the workers. The programme was organized and began with a talk by Dr. Pavanjeet Bali on Khadi and its relevance in the present scenario. The documentary showcased as to how the "BADLAO MOVEMENT" initiated by the Govt. of India will bring Khadi into mainstream fashion industry and make khadi a house hold name. The students were highly inspired and motivated to use khadi and also promote it. Also present on the occasion was Prof. Anju Bala (NBS

The Department of Commerce at Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, took an active role in contributing to the Swachata Mission by organizing a series of activities aimed at promoting cleanliness and hygiene within and beyond the college premises.

Govt. College for women, Bhagwati nagar organized a Swachata Campaign

NIN NEWS SERVICE
JAMMU, OCT 25

The Department of Commerce Organized a swachata campaign under the able guidance of the principal of the college, Dr. Meeru Abrol.

The Swachh Bharat mission, also known as the Bharat Abhiyan or the clean India mission, is a national initiative of the Indian government that was started in 2014. It aims to eradicate open excretion and improve solid waste management. One step towards cleanliness is its primary motto. In an effort for India to improve and become cleaner, many goals were set. It aspires to construct sanitary infrastructure for every family.

A cleanliness campaign was held in the college in an effort to create a tidy and clean society. Along with the employees, over 50 students took part in this initiative. Mr. Mehmood Ahmad gave a presentation on the value of sanitation and cleanliness, and other staff members contributed their insightful opinions. This event was planned to get students involved in the college's cleaning program. Participants collected trash and shouted out messages encouraging people to keep their surroundings clean.

The college's principal, Prof. Meeru Abrol, encouraged the students to participate in such creative endeavours and showed appreciation for them. She also exhorted the participants to carry on the tradition of selfless service and serve as examples for others.

The whole Programme was coordinated by Mr. Mehmood Ahmad, Department of Commerce. The students Participated whole heartedly.

Government College for Women (GCW), Bhagwati Nagar, enthusiastically celebrated the Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory (UT) Foundation Day on [Insert Date]. The event was a testament to the historical significance of the day and aimed to instill pride and unity among the college community. The Jammu and Kashmir UT Foundation Day celebration received extensive media coverage through press releases, local news articles, and social media platforms. This coverage helped share the festive spirit and cultural richness with a wider audience.

9. JOURNEY LINE, JAMMU

GCW Bhagwati Nagar organizes series of activities

NIN NEWS SERVICE
JAMMU, Oct 25 (NIN) - The Department of Commerce at Government College for Women, Bhagwati Nagar, organized a series of activities on Oct 25 as part of its 75th Foundation Day Celebration under the banner of 'Journey Line'.

The activities were organized by the Department of Commerce, under the guidance of the principal, Dr. Meeru Abrol.

The activities were held in the college premises and included a quiz competition, a group discussion, and a group activity. The quiz competition was held in the college premises and included a group discussion and a group activity. The group discussion was held in the college premises and included a group activity.

The group activity was held in the college premises and included a group discussion and a group activity. The group discussion was held in the college premises and included a group activity.

The group activity was held in the college premises and included a group discussion and a group activity. The group discussion was held in the college premises and included a group activity.

